Verbatim Report of Willis' Interview With the Ex-Queen.

THE MURDER FOUND OUT AT LAST.

Cleveland Cannot Hide His Scheme Any Longer-Willis' Interview With a Malignant Woman-She Demanded the Lives and Property of all the Revolutionists.

The Warrimoo arrived Friday morning, nine days out from Vancouver, having been detained by stormy weather. She brings the news that Lieut. Swinburne has been giving important evidence before the Senate Committee which "knocks out" the cooked up fabrications of Blount and Gresham. This evidence has not yet been published. The Warrimoo also brings the full text of Willis' famous despatch No. 3, which had been so long withheld. It exposes completely the murderous designs of the ex-queen. The despatch is as follows: Document No. 3 announces Mr. Willis' interview with the queen on November 15th. In it occurs the following: "I then made known to the President's sincere regret that through the unauthorized intervention of the United States she had been obliged to surrender her sovereignty, and his hope that, with her consent and cooperation, the wrong done to her and her people might be redressed." To this she bowed her acknowledgments. I then said to her: "The President expects and believes that when reinstated you will show forgiveness and magnanimity; that you will wish to be the queen of all the people, both native and foreign born; that you will haste to secure their love and loyalty, and to establish peace, friendship and good government." To this she made no reply. After waiting a moment, I continued: "The President not only continued: "The President not only tenders you his sympathy, but wishes to help you. Before fully making known to you his purposes, I desire to know whether you are willing to an swer certain questions which it is my duty to ask?" She answered, "I am willing." I then asked her: "Should you be returned to the throne, would you grant full amnesty, as to life you grant full amnesty, as to life and property, to all those persons who have been or are now in the Provisional Government, or who have been instrumental in the overthrow of your government?" She hesitated a moment and then slowly and calmly a moment and then slowly and calmiy answered: "There are certain laws of my government by which I shall a general entertainment in which was thus accidentally deducted from me, and direct that the same be repaid to me, that I may then be MY DECISION WOULD BE AS THE LAW DIRECTS-THAT SUCH PER-SONS SHOUD BE BEHADED, AND THEIR PROPERTY CONFISCATED TO

I then said, repeating very distinctly her words: "It is your feeling that these people should be beheaded and their property confiscated?" She re-plied: "It is." I then said to her: Do you fully understand the meaning of every word which I have said to you, and of every word which you have said to me; and if so, do you still have the same opinion?" Her answer was: "I have understood and mean all I have said, but I might leave the decision of this to my ministers." To this I replied: "Suppose it was necessary to make a decision before you appointed any ministers, and that you were to be asked to issue a royal proclamation of general amnesty, would you do it?" swered: "I have no legal right to do that, and I would not do it." Pausing a moment, she continued: "These people were the cause of the revolution and Constitution of 1887. There never will be any peace while they are here. They must be sent out of the country, or punished and their property confiscated." I then said: 'I have no further communication to make to you now, and will have none until I hear from my Government, which will probably be three or four weeks." Nothing was said for sev-eral minutes, when I asked her whether she was willing to give me the names of four of her most trusted friends, as I might, within a day or two, consider it my duty to hold a consultation with them in her presence. She assented, and gave these names: J. O. Carter, Jno. Richardson, Joseph Nawshi and E. C. Macfarlane. On December 5 the queen's Mar-shal, at time of her dethronement, called on Minister Willis and left a document setting forth the method of procedure to be adopted in the event of the queen's restoration, as follows: Government of their resumption of

THE GOVERNMENT."

"I. Proclamation by the queen's the control of the Government of the Hawaiian Islands; II. Appointment of commander-in-chief and staff; III. Proclamation of martial law and the suspension of the writ of habeas cor-pus; IV Calling on all loyal citizens and well-wishers of the Government to register their names for service at office; enrollment of volunteers; V. Surrender of all arms and ammuni tion in private bands, and the prohibition of all sale and trans-port of arms and ammunition the queen's forces and placing guards therein; VII. Proclamation prohibit-ing the departure of coasting vessels and other vessels to the other islands; VIII. Re-appointment of all officials and the filling of vacancies; IX. Arrest of all persons implicated or concerned in the late overthrow; X. Custody and care of all prisoners made under authority of the above para-graph and those handed over by the United States forces; XI. Receiving of all arms and munitions of war and other Government property surren-dered to United States forces by the Provisional Government forces; XII. Despatch of vessels to the other islands to proclaim the Queen's Government and make all necessary changes and arrests."

A LIVELY SCENE.

The Hawaiian debates have brought about some of the most exciting episodes the House of Representatives has witnessed in recent years. The following, which is clipped from a Washington dispatch, describes one which arose over an attempt made by Boutelle to get in one of his resolutions. The Speaker, to dodge the issue, had declared the House adjourned: Although the Speaker had left the chair and the House was adjourned, the members still stood in their places, while all the people in the galleries stood up.

Boutelle shook his fist at the applauding Democrats, and shouted above the din: "You're afraid to face this question."

The Democrats shouled with laughter and continued to applaud. "I've seen you run before," shrieked Boutelle, while the Democrats laughed louder, while they clapped and stamped on the floor. This extra session of the House might have gone on indefinitely had not Reed, who was so enraged because Speaker Crisp had adjourned the House as Speaker Reed used to do, cooled down and taken his seat. Boutelle followed his example, and so the extraordinary performance ended. Boutelle announced afterward that he would keep at it until he got his resolution in. "I'll do it," he said, "if it takes the rest of my term, unless President Cleveland sends an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary up here to depose me and put a colored lady in my place.

HAWAIIAN DAY.

Monday, the 11th of June, is the day that has been set apart as "Hawaiian Day," at the California Midwinter Fair, and that occasion will be taken advantage of for the makthe Hawaiian concessionaires will play the part of hosts. A part of the programme will consist of a parade by the entire foreign contingent, headed by the Hawaiian band of forty pieces. Among other features of the day will be a horse race with female riders, sitting astride, as is the native custom. There will also be native field sports, including fencing, spear throwing and dancing. On Waikiki la-goon, within the Hawaiian enclosure, there will be a comprehensive exhibition of aquatic sports. The event of the day, however, will be a luau, or native feast, to which the officials of the fair, the municipal officers, the press, and others will be invited. Guests will sit on mats and eat from a table a foot and a half from the ground. Roast pig and baked dog, cooked in ti leaves, broiled devil fish, and a large number of other island fish also cooked in leaves, native fruits and, of course, "poi" with every course, will be some of the items of the menu. them to obtain the sense of the mem-It will require about a week of preparation to properly get up a luan, and cooks and provisions are to be specially imported from the Hawaiian Islands for this event.

Japanese Suffrage. MR. CAPT. TRIPP WANTS HIS WAGES.

The Board of Education Bill Passed-Emmeluth's Resolution Adopted-The Schuetzen Club Heard From-Councils Go Into Executive Session.

THURSDAY, Jan. 25.

The session of the Councils was pened at 1:35 P.M., Vice President Wilder in the chair, Ministers Damon, King and Smith, and Councillors Brown, Ena, Waterbouse, Allen, Mendonca, Bolte, Young, Morgan and Tenney being present.

The minutes of the preceding regular meeting were read and approved. Mr. Emmeluth came in during the reading of the minutes. The minutes of the special session held on Saturday last were also read and approved.

PETITIONS. Mr. C. Brown presented a petition from the Hawaiian Hardware Company for refund of duty on goods which had been returned by that

Referred to Finance Committee. Minister Damon presented a peti-tion from Captain Tripp, as follows:

HONOLULU, Nov. 23, 1893. To the President and Members of the Executive and Advisory Councils of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, in Legisla-ture Assembled:

GENTLEMEN—In the Legislature of 1892 the Committee of Ways and Means recommended the reduction of the salaries of various Government officials for the sake of economy; this was done, and by agreement of the Legislature all salaries were continued at their old rate until October 11, 1892, and from thence at the reduced rate. The Appropriation Bill was passed in such a manner as to show this. I was at that time, and until the 1st of August, 1893, Jailor of Oahu Prison. My salary at the old rate was $150 per month; it was re-commended to be reduced to $125 a month. The vote for my salary should have been, according to the practice in all other cases then, eight months at $150, or $1200, and sixteen months at $125, or $2000; a total of $3200. Instead of which only $3000 was voted. This was done, as I am informed, in error, through the absence of the then Attorney-General, Mr. Cecil Brown, from the session at the time the vote was passed. I therefore petition your honorable body to restore the amount which was thus accidentally deducted placed on the same footing as all other Government officials at that time, and not be discriminated against, as has oeen done by my having alone of all the officials to accept a reduction of salary; $12.50 per month was taken from the salary that was appropriated for the jailor by the Legislature.

Yours truly, A. N. TRIPP.

American League recommending an increase in the Council. Mr. Emmeluth moved the resolution be placed in the hands of a special committee, with instructions to communicate it to the Annexation Clubs on the various islands, requesting bers on the subject. Attorney General Smith thought that the course suggested would probably be ultimately found advisable. but it was hardly the course to be taken first, as the resolution implied a fundamental change, the first radical departure in this Government. It would be a better course, he thought, to refer it to a committee, to report at the next meeting. The members of Annexation Clubs would probably desire some indication as to the views

Mr. Brown regarded the proposition as a step toward a permanent form of government. It had been said that the Councils were not representatives of the whole nation. As the country was situated at present, he thought the step a little premature. It should be referred to a committee of the Council, which and report on the proposition. After
